們

UNTRY	management of the contract of
5	Military Information from the Koenigsbrueck Training Area
ALUATION	PLACE OBTAINED.
TE OF CC
TE OBTAI	NEDDATE PREPARED 27 October 1953 1
	S
GES_2	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
MARKS_
. SAMPONIA POR VIEW CHIEF POPE
·
1.	the Nachrichten Kaserne in Koenigsbrueck was occupied by a course or a training battalion of about 200 troops strength of the unit varied constantly.
ı F	The troops assigned to the training battalion were red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with artillery insignia. When marching out, the troops were ة ا	armed with smallarms and 82-mm mortars. the unit was not equipped with motor vehicles, but received vehicles from Neues Lager, if needed.
' г	equipped with motor venicles, but received venicles from wedes lager, in mediat.
. 1
1 L
	Troops and material seen en route from the direction of the summer camp to the Koenigsbrusck railroad station between 27 September and 4 October, included:
	27 September. JS-3 tanks
7	28 September. SU-76 guns 8 trucks which,
1 [went toward Oschatz-Wurzen.
	3 October. Trucks towing 37-mm AA guns.
ئے 1	4 October. Trucks carrying ammunition boxes
	Schwennitz.
L	ADDITION AND A
1 Г	the bulk of the troops had already left.
1 [A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely station-
1 [the bulk of the troops had already left.
1  	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager
1 [1 3. [A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women
1 [1 3.]	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the
1 [1 3.]	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and
1 [1 3. [1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. 5 They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one
1 [1 3. [1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. They further stated
1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. 5 They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one 20-kg parcel per month, as against one 10-kg parcel per month as previously.
1 [1 3.] 1 [A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. 5 They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one 20-kg parcel per month, as against one 10-kg parcel per month as previously. On 30 September and 1 October, 42 T-34/85 tanks
1 [1 3·] 1 1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one 20-kg parcel per month, as against one 10-kg parcel per month as previously. On 30 September and 1 October, 42 T-34/85 tanks and an undetermined number of trucks, were seen at the Koenigs-
1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one 20-kg parcel per month, as against one 10-kg parcel per month as previously. On 30 September and 1 October, 42 T-34/85 tanks 6 JS tanks and an undetermined number of trucks, were seen at the Koenigs- brucek railroad station, coming from Neues Lager. At 11:30 a.m. on 1 October,
1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. 5 They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one 20-kg parcel per month, as against one 10-kg parcel per month as previously. On 30 September and 1 October, 42 T-34/85 tanks 6 JS tanks and an undetermined number of trucks, were seen at the Koenigs- brueck railroad station, coming from Neues Lager. At 11:30 a.m. on 1 October, a shipment of 16 JS tanks and 6 trucks left the Schwepnitz railroad station towar
1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. 5 They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one 20-kg parcel per month, as against one 10-kg parcel per month as previously. On 30 September and 1 October, 42 T-34/85 tanks 6 JS tanks and an undetermined number of trucks, were seen at the Koenigs- brueck railroad station, coming from Neues Lager. At 11:30 a.m. on 1 October, a shipment of 16 JS tanks and 6 trucks left the Schwepnitz railroad station towar 25X1
1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. 5 They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one 20-kg parcel per month, as against one 10-kg parcel per month as previously. On 30 September and 1 October, 42 T-34/85 tanks 6 JS tanks and an undetermined number of trucks, were seen at the Koenigs- brueck railroad station, coming from Neues Lager. At 11:30 a.m. on 1 October, a shipment of 16 JS tanks and 6 trucks left the Schwepnitz railroad station towar
1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. 5 They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one 20-kg parcel per month, as against one 10-kg parcel per month as previously. On 30 September and 1 October, 42 T-34/85 tanks 6 JS tanks and an undetermined number of trucks, were seen at the Koenigs- brueck railroad station, coming from Neues Lager. At 11:30 a.m. on 1 October, a shipment of 16 JS tanks and 6 trucks left the Schwepnitz railroad station towar 25X1
1	A tank unit from Meissen, under the command of a colonel, was definitely stationed in the summer camp as late as 6 October. Majors Varovski and Mitrofanov (fnu), supply officers at Neues Lager stated that, until the end of 1953, the Russian women now employed at PX-shops and other agencies would have to return to the USSR; the then, all occupation costs would have to be paid by the occupation power and that, therefore, German employees would be employed. 5 They further stated that, since early October, Soviet troops were permitted to send to the USSR one 20-kg parcel per month, as against one 10-kg parcel per month as previously. On 30 September and 1 October, 42 T-34/85 tanks 6 JS tanks and an undetermined number of trucks, were seen at the Koenigs- brueck railroad station, coming from Neues Lager. At 11:30 a.m. on 1 October, a shipment of 16 JS tanks and 6 trucks left the Schwepnitz railroad station towar 25X1 CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

25X1

Approved For Release 2006/12/14: CIA-RDP80-00810A002900140006-1

25X1 🌯

25X1